Saddest Words of Tongue or Pen, Favorites Failed to Win Again.

SOCIETY AT AQUEDUCT. Seems to Be General Complaint Against the Work of Starter Pettingill.

By Francis Trevelyan.

Space was at a premium at Aqueduct yesterday. Even the society element that is expected only at Morris Park and Sheepshead Bay was represented by Messrs. John Sanford, Appleton Smith, Andrew Miller, and others.

Those who went out to see favorites win came away empty. One favorite did win, but it was not until the last race, an affair for maiden two-year-olds not at all calculated to inspire confidence after a long afternoon of disaster. Moreover, though Ray Orator was first choice, his price was only a fraction shorter than Wasteful's, which means that the latter carried just about as much money.

The Queens County Jockey Club had secured the services of W. H. Barretto to time its races, vice "Dave" Holland. Mr. Holland is a good fellow, but as a timer he has not shone conspicuously, and the fact that he missed one race on Friday seems to have been the last straw. If the club could change its starter it would be the gain. Individually, Mr. Pettingill, like Mr. Holland, is personable, graceful, and, he has lost all the skill that once he had. It is not only that he makes bad starts, but he shows a disposition to hesitate that is lamentable.

Yesterday the starter, after displaying "two minds" over a breakaway in the second race, got such a "jolting" from the crowd in the next that he positively had to send for Robert Plunkerton to keep order. This is worse than leaving a favorite, as he did in the case of Maurice, for which, however, he could scarcely be blamed, as this horse is a rank actor. Racing men are completely lost, however, to Mr. Pettingill, and a member of the Jockey Club sided up the general situation correctly when he said, before the last race yesterday: "This starting simply makes me sick."

The stewards of the Aqueduct meeting have, after investigation, decided that there was nothing wrong with Passover's race on Friday. The sheets of a prominent layer who is close to Sam Doggett were examined. It was found that he had laid heavily against Passover, but even more heavily against Xmas, losing $600 on the race. Frank McCabe, who questioned as to whether he was satisfied with the way the horse was ridden, said that both the horse's hind legs cracked in the race so badly that he was bleeding profusely when he pulled up. The fact seems to have been that the horse was not in fit condition to send to the post.

Much solicitude was expressed as to the Jockey, Sanger, who fell with the horse on Friday. Sanger became conscious about 10 o'clock yesterday morning and stayed so for half an hour. He then relaxed and had been unconscious up to a late hour last night. There is some hope of his recovery, but it appears to be very slight.

The handicap at a mile and a sixteenth was the best race that has been seen at the meeting. Maurice was backed to an absurd extent, closing actual favorite, but he put up in his own style, being steady on the left. Bravado cut out a hot pace, but Bravado was always in a nice position, and at the end came on and won very easily, while Bravado, running extremely gamely, came again, and beat Ben Eder, who headed him at one point a nose for the place.

Frank O. Day, the favorite, seemed to have the first race won a sixteenth from home, but Thorpe was not able to stand out Doggett's challenge on Alarum, and the latter won by a head. Thorpe was fairly hampered, but his mount seemed to be stopping every stride. Thorpe won a capital race, but Alarum, in the next event, beating "Skeets" Martin on horses by sheer hard riding.

Hewitt won two races for the Messrs. Thompson, on Alarum, and Ray Orator, the former handily, the latter very easily. Ben Bonaldi scored again for Mr. M. F. Beyer. He was at a liberal price—2 to 1—but he had no difficulty in beating the favorite, Roy del Terra.

Mitch was fined $30 and set down for the rest of the meeting for impudence at the post in the second race. When he took Old Angus back he replied, "I want go back, and nobody can make me!"
